Library Advisory Committee of the Southern Region

Representatives of the Department of Agriculture agencies in this Region have been selected to work with the library in planning types and amounts of library service to be rendered in the coming year. You are invited to discuss the matter with any committee member, or with the librarian.

Harry L. Carr, Chief of Marketing Reports Division, Agricultural Marketing Administration
W.C. Dendinger, Inspector in Charge, Bureau of Animal Industry
Miss Frances L. Moore, Home Management Supervisor, Farm Security Administration
Truman G. Benedict, Regional Training Officer, Forest Service
Mrs. Pauline L. Martin, Division of Land Acquisition, Soil Conservation Service

Dept. of Agriculture Regulations 4114; 4125; 4126; and 4228 have been cancelled. New Regulations, approved 11-10-42, are now effective. The titles follow: 1911. Definitions; 1912. Responsibilities of Department Librarian for Acquisition and Use of Published Materials. 1913. Ownership of Published Materials. 1914. Availability of Funds for Purchase of Published Materials; 1915. Loan of Working Tools; 1916. Loan of other Library Materials; 1917. Disposition of Published Materials.

The magazine routing list is now being scheduled, based on checked copies of the periodicals list which you have returned (Newsletter of December 15) Extra copies of the list are available in the library, in case they are needed. Please notify us if you wish to see regularly the following addition to the list:

Timberman (monthly)

Magazines are lent to each reader for three days' use. Books go out for a month's use, renewable on request for another month. The loan period is sometimes restricted to two weeks, if there is a waiting list for a particular book.
